ORIGIN [REDACTED] 25X1X6 PAGES 25X1A2g

SUPPLEMENT [REDACTED]

1. At a meeting that was held sometime in the middle of January 1947 [REDACTED] 25X1X6
25X1X6 [REDACTED] a highly placed Russian political officer [REDACTED] stated 25X1X6 that the Russians intend to send representatives of the German political parties to the Moscow Conference.

2. In a conversation about former Ambassador Nadelny, the Russian political officer stated that he considered Nadelny an acceptable German for the purpose of representing Germany and giving advice to Russian authorities, but that the latter are at a loss to decide in what capacity Nadelny should be sent to Moscow. 25X1X6

3. [REDACTED] General Georgiev told Ernst Lemmer that Nadelny is favorably considered by the Russians but that he is too close to various British and American authorities in Berlin.

25X1A6a 4. [REDACTED] in a conversation between General Georgiev and Nadelny, the former stated that Germany will be a "politically independent nation" within eighteen months. General Georgiev also told Nadelny that the Russians intend to begin a complete alteration of their policy towards Germany in the near future.

25X1A6a [REDACTED] This alteration may consist of a proposal to withdraw all occupation troops from Germany. The Russian political officer told Source I that Germany will have regained complete freedom in ten years.
